Social Events in Latta.
Mrs. D. B. Shine entertained the young people on Friday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Carpenter of the Dillon school faculty. Progressive rook was played and a number of interesting games were played until a late hour when cards were laid aside, and dainty covers placed on the tables, and delicious block cream and wafers were served. The living room was decorated in Dorothy Perkins roses.
Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Shine were delightful host and hostess on Saturday evening with a fish supper on the lawn of Mrs. Shine's father, Mr. W. K. Bethea. Hot fried and stewed fish with rice and breads with hot coffee and cakes were served in abundance. Those enjoying this affair were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Parham, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bass, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Watson and guest Miss DuBose, Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bethea, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McNair, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. McGee, Miss Carpenter of Dillon, Misses Pearl Pinkerton and Ormie Bethea.
Mrs. L. L. Watson entertained on Saturday morning in honor of her guest, Miss Amelia DuBose, of the Dillon School faculty. The parlors were thrown en suite and beautifully decorated in roses, ferns and pots of blooming geraniums. Four tables were arranged for progressive rook and a number of spirited rubbers were enjoyed. Dainty score cards were used. Miss Ormie Bethea holding the greatest number of punches was given a beautiful bunch of Columbia roses. Delicious dipped ice cream topped with cherries and wafers was served by the hostess assisted by Miss Winks Bailey. Those present were Mesdames S. K. Rossignol, of Atlanta, Maggie Carpenter of Dillon, D. G. Burden, Hoyt Watson, P. C. Henry, T. J. Allen, T. C. McGee, S. E. Fenegan, John J. Allen, Misses Annie Covington, Gertrude Manning, Mabel Parham, Ormie Bethea, Estelle Ellerbe and Winks Bailey.

Mrs. L. E. Dew and Misses Florence and Eunice Allen entertained at the home of the former with a most attractive millinery party on Saturday afternoon. The guests were received by Mrs. Dew and when all had arrived Mrs. John J. Allen came in and said that she had heard of a millinery store that needed a new milliner and suggested all going and trying for the place. All rushed out to the immense living and dining room which was arranged like a real millinery establishment and were introduced to Madame who needed a new worker. All necessities for hat making were provided—models were passed and each guest was asked to make a hat appropriate for her model to wear. Much real merriment ensued for more than an hour. When all hats were numbered and placed on a table and votes were taken for the best, the count resulted in a tie between Miss Annie Covington and Cornelia Bethea, the prize, a gold hat pin, falling to the latter. Parts of hats with prices were next given to be matched to see who could secure three of the cheapest. Mrs. Crumpler won in this as she secured three hats for ten dollars. Dainty napkins were passed by Marjorie Dew and ice cream with pound cake was served by Myra Powell, Ellen and Theo Dew. Small hats hand-painted were the favors stuck with a tooth pick into the ice cream. Those present were Mesdames J. J. Allen, Hoyt Watson, Oscar and S. E. Fenegan, L. C. Bass, M. E. McNair, F. L. Carpenter, T. C. McGee, Ada Edwards, John C. Allen, John C. Hayes, J. Ellen, L. N. Hatchel, J. D. Coleman, Deans Crumpler and guest Miss McMillan, D. B. Shine and guest Miss Carpenter, Isla Crumpler, Misses Ormie Bethea, Mabel Parham, Annie Covington, Teressa Dew, Cornelia Bethea and Amelia DuBose.
News Items of Interest in and Around Latta.
On Friday afternoon the 29th there was a very interesting as well as a hard fought game of base ball between the Lake City High School team and the Latta High School team on the Latta diamond, in which Latta defeated the Lake City boys 8 to 6.
Rev. G. Emory Edwards, Secretary of the Educational Drive, preached a very interesting as well as instructive sermon in the Methodist church here at the morning hour on Sunday to a large and appreciative congregation. This being the home of Rev. Mr. Edwards' parents, we welcome his home-coming, and are always delighted to hear him on these occasions.

A case of more than usual interest was tried by Magistrate E. C. Allen on Friday morning, and was about as follows: On last Sunday night at Sardis Baptist church, while Rev. Dunn was conducting a revival meeting, there were several buggy robes and storm aprons taken from cars and buggies, and some one took a fine horse belonging to Morgan Turner, and sheared his tail, mule fashion, which to say the least of it, gave the horse a very comical appearance. Warrants were issued by Mr. Allen for three young men living in the neighborhood. At the trial on Friday, all the young men came clear of the charges, except Ed Hodges, who was bound over to the County Court in the sum of $200.00.
Calvin Lee of the Temperance section died the early part of this week. Mr. Lee had been sick for several weeks, and his death was not a surprise to his friends. He was about seventy two years old. His vocation was farming, and although his farm was small, by thrift and industry his farm yielded him a good living. For the past twenty years I have not known of this man buying anything on credit. In other words, he would not buy unless he had the money with which to pay for the article needed.

There was a meeting of the patrons of the Latta School on Tuesday afternoon in the auditorium of the school building to decide whether there will be one or two sessions each day during next term. After some discussions it was put to a vote and was carried about three to one in favor of two sessions each day. Those who had charge of the school say that the children made better marks, and did it more easily this year under the two session system than they did in the past with only one each day, and now since it has been left to a vote, we being all democrats, all will fall into line and be satisfied with the arrangement.
The second game of base ball between the High School teams of Latta and Lake City on Saturday afternoon, at Latta, was poorly played by both teams, though Lake City got the better of it. It was calculated to make older people who have seen "Town Ball" played remember that old game which was played in the schools of that time, when the score went up to about one hundred. "The more scores the better game." At the end of the game Saturday, the score stood 25 to 12 in favor of Lake City.
Mr. O. J. Zeigler who has charge of the Latta boys wishes to thank the public generally for their financial support, as well as their presence, and enthusiastic rooting at these games. There will be one next Friday with the Clio School team, and he extends an invitation to all to come and help him win this game.
